

the health and care of young people

Published on 25 June 2015, this HSCIC statistical publication provides a compilation of information on young people living in England and gives a broad picture of their health, care and wellbeing.

